

THE MONARCH VACUUM CLEANER

We have just taken the agency for the sale of the Monarch Vacuum Cleaner which is considered to-day the best machine on the market and used in some of the largest hotels and stores in the country. This machine in one-third the weight, one half the price and three times the efficiency.

All the dirt, all the germs, all the filth are completely absorbed by the Monarch. The Monarch is the new effective servant in the house—sanitary, clean, perfect. The saver of labor and time; endorsed and adopted by all who have ever witnessed its superior effectiveness.

Tonight, between seven and nine o'clock

In Our Show Window you can witness a free demonstration of this machine, which will be of interest for everybody to investigate. When in need of a vacuum cleaner service, just try the Monarch, delivered to your home or place of business and called for when through.

The Homer Fitts Company

Barre, Vt. Tel. 50. Demonstration Tonight

Hates to Lose Company.

It is a crying shame that the order has gone out for the disbandment of Co. C.

Company C is the direct descendant of the old Allen Grays, a militia company organized in Brandon more than 70 years ago, and without a break Brandon has been its home since. Its record has been an honorable one. Its members to the last man, volunteered in '61 for the war of the rebellion and 37 years later its members volunteered, to the last man, for the Spanish-American war. Its patriotism has never lagged, therefore it is not due to lack of patriotism that Brandon is to lose its militia company. It is not for lack of money, the company is well and sufficiently provided with funds.

The order says it is lack of interest and we don't believe Brandon can afford to let the company go on these grounds. It cost the town a cent. Instead it distributes from $1,200 to $1,500 in town annually. But what we most want is the company—and to escape the shame of losing it for lack of interest. For we believe the lack of interest is with the officers and our citizens rather than with the enlisted men.

To be perfectly plain—and the situation demands it—the captain, although well equipped as a drill master, lacks the energy that has characterized his predecessors. He is a non-resident, which alone is a fatal failing. To keep up the interest his presence is demanded often at the armory. The only hope for Brandon to retain the company, we believe, is for the citizens to at once demonstrate their interest, for Mr. Kelley to resign and for the company to elect a resident captain.

Mr. Kelley would probably embrace any plan that would save Company C. Will the citizens move?—Brandon Union.

They Deserved to Be in Prison.

It was the dinner hour, and the prison inspectors were hurrying over their official rounds. They asked several questions quickly.

"I am here, gentlemen," exclaimed the pickpocket, when the warden turned his back, "as the result of a moment of abstraction."

"And I," observed the incendiary, "because of an unfortunate habit of making light of things."

"The reason I am here," chimed in the forger, "is simply on account of a natural desire to make a name for myself."

"And I," added the burglar, "through nothing but taking advantage of an opening which was offered in a large mercantile establishment."—Tit-Bits.

A Draw.

"I found fifty cents this morning," confided Jimmy.

"Found a whole half dollar!" cried his mother. "How fine! What did you do with it?"

"Pete Jones was along, so I gave him half."

"You dear, generous boy! Did you do that of your own accord?"

"Yesum—well, we decided that would be right."

"Jimmy! He didn't whip you and make you give up half?"

"No, mamma. If he'd flogged me, he'd 'a' had it all. The scrap was a draw."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Force of Habit.

"For heaven's sake!" he exclaimed when he had tried on his new suit, "why have you put such enormous pockets in my coat and trousers?"

"Oh," the tailor confessed, "I must beg your pardon for that. It was a mistake. You see I have been doing business in a town where the saloons were all closed on Sundays."—Chicago Record-Herald.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mixture coats, half price, at Fitts'. C. J. Goldsberry visited friends in Burlington over Sunday.

Bert Hutchins of Northfield was a business visitor in the city to-day.

Many a man prefers Miers' sanitary barber service because it pleases.

You will find the best line of blankets in the city at Perry's and at prices to suit all.

Miss Annie Averill went to Boston to-day for a three weeks' visit with friends.

Rev. Arthur C. Griffin went to St. Johnsbury to-day for a few days' visit with friends.

All millinery at greatly reduced prices, and trimmed free. Corner South Main and Ayer streets.

Now is the time for ladies' fur hats, made in the latest style, own furs used, at Miss Mair's, 11 Cottage street.

John G. Morrison, who has been at the Morrion farm during the summer, returned yesterday to his home in Cambridge, Mass.

J. J. Dashner, agent for the D. A. Perry Real Estate agency sold the L. L. Stearns farm in Washington to Andrew Jenerau of Westerville. The price paid is said to be $1,400.

Among the guests registered at the hotel Otis yesterday were the following: C. E. Grossarth, Burlington; W. H. Foster, W. E. Sampson, Boston; C. W. Hankel, New York City; F. D. Cutler, Sheldon; H. W. Thompson, White River Junction.

Guests registered at the City hotel yesterday and to-day were as follows: C. B. Carpenter, Bellows Falls; A. Cohen, Burlington; M. F. Stranahan, Waterbury; J. E. Rogers, Omaha, Neb.; J. H. McDonald, St. Albans; W. A. Myers, L. E. Butler, E. G. Clewley, Burlington; H. P. Hinman, Orange.

Albert J. Healy, who has been cashier at the Barre railroad freight office for several years, has resigned his position there to accept a position in the office of the Boutwell, Varum & Milne quarry company at Graniteville. Robert Cordier, who has been yard clerk, succeeds Mr. Healy as cashier.

Mrs. George H. Gilman, who has been visiting for the past month at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Barclay, returned to-day to her home in Claremont, N. H. Mr. Gilman, who has been on a business trip through the west for the Sullivan Machinery company, arrived last night and returned to Claremont with her to-day.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

As the result of being thrown into the road when his wagon broke on Washington street last Friday, D. W. McDonald of Perry street is nursing severe bruises on face, hands and other parts of his body, and, in addition, one hand is temporarily disabled from the wrenching. He is able to be about but is still very sore. When the wagon broke it caused the horse to run away, drawing the wheels over Mr. McDonald, as he fell in front of the vehicle.

Red Men to the number of thirty surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall at their home on the Hall farm Saturday evening, when Big Chief Walker, on behalf of the Red Men, presented them a handsome dessert set. Cards, songs and after-dinner speeches made the evening pass very enjoyably, all wishing long life and happiness to those who had so often shown their unbounded hospitality to the Red Men and their squaws.

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1911.

Weather Forecast.
Rain and warmer to-night. Tuesday probably rain; east and southeast winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Fine line of furs at Fitts'. Ladies' coats and furs at Vaughan's. Alex. Corry passed Sunday with friends in Waterbury.

Hansel Hanson went to Williamstown to-day on a business trip.

Headquarters for comforters, warmth without weight—Perry's store.

The Clover club will meet with Mrs. Homer Fitts Tuesday at 2:30 p. m.

Robert Quinlin went to Montreal to-day, where he will spend the winter.

Quick lunches served to your satisfaction at all hours. Depot square lunch cart.

J. K. Pirie of Graniteville and J. R. Coutts were in Northfield to-day on business.

C. Galli went to Milford, Mass., to-day to work at his trade as a stone-cutter.

Just received at Abbott's a lot of those heavy double-faced ladies' coats. See them.

Regular meeting of the R. C. I. P. A. in K. of P. hall Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

William Daniels and Mrs. Bolles went to Burlington Saturday, where they will remain for several days.

J. J. Dashner of Washington returned last week from a business visit in Plattsburgh and Keeseville, N. Y.

The Athena club meeting will be held with Mrs. Bruce, 25 Nelson street, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Andrew Semonelli will leave the city to-night for Salisbury, N. C., where he will be employed during the winter.

Henry Hull of South Woodbury passed Sunday at the home of Deputy Sheriff Andrew M. Morrison of Batchelder street.

Marie, the five-year-old daughter of Theodore Gings of South Main street, is very ill with laryngeal diphtheria.

On account of necessary repairs being made, the Bijou theatre was closed down this afternoon until 7:30 o'clock to-night.

Samuel Thurston of Groton is passing a few days with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wheeler of the Merchant street extension.

Notice: Monday, Nov. 6, is the last day you can pay your water rent without 10 per cent. being added. Office open every evening from 7 to 8.

Emello Casani and son, Innocent, will leave to-night for New York City, whence they will sail Wednesday for Italy to remain during the winter.

Mrs. Lenora D. Wheeler, who observed her eighty-fifth birthday at her home on the East Montpelier road yesterday, received a postal card shower of 476 cards.

Anita Grassi, who was so severely burned in a bonfire on Railroad street nearly five weeks ago, is slowly improving, though unable to sit up yet on account of loss of tissue.

Paul Swayse of Nelson street returned home this morning, after passing a few days in Burlington with his brother, Everett C. Swayse, a student at the university of Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wyman of Bradford and Miss Margaret Clark of Woodbury, who have been passing a few days in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wheeler, returned to their respective homes Saturday.

C. F. Smith, auctioneer, held a sale Saturday in Brookfield for C. A. Bigelow, executor, of the estate of Adeline Peck. The real estate was sold to Mrs. R. H. Simonds of Brookfield for $1,200. Personal property brought satisfactory prices.

If you have any watches, clocks or jewelry that need repairs just drop me a card. I will call for and deliver all work to any part of the city. I guarantee first class work and satisfaction. Give me a trial. M. L. Aiken, 30 Academy street.

Mrs. J. W. Jackson left for Lewiston, Me., last Thursday, where her brother, P. F. Emery, was operated on Friday in the Lewiston hospital for disease of the gall bladder. His condition is very serious and Mrs. Jackson will remain with him until there is some improvement.

It will no doubt be pleasing to the many patrons of the Pavilion to know that Don Ramsay's harmonists will be the feature attraction at the Pavilion during the first three days of this week. Many of those who attend the Pavilion will doubt remember this act as it was played at the theatre about a year ago. Nearly everyone who saw it then voted it one of the best acts that ever came to Barre. This work is clear-cut and extremely pleasing. They have played return engagements at every theatre they played at last year and have scored the same big success as they did last year. The cast is not the same as it was on its former visit. Only one of the old members remains, that one being Mr. Taylor, who does the stuttering part.

Special convocation of Granite chapter, No. 28, R. A. M., Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. Work. M. M. degree. Per order E. H. P.

Regular meeting of Court Barre, No. 3317, I. O. F., Tuesday evening, Nov. 7, at 8:30. Dances at 8 o'clock, with Companion court.

TOO LATE TO BE CLASSIFIED.

TO RENT—Cottage of six rooms, all modern. Inquire at 19 Main street.

WASHINGS WANTED—Work called for and delivered. Apply at 11 Webster Avenue.

GLENDEN HEATER FOR SALE—Apply at 17 Spaulding street.

SMALL TENEMENT TO RENT—Two, three, or four rooms, as desired. Inquire at No. 24 Patterson street, J. D. Field.

FOR SALE—A surface, nearly new, a new belows several chaises, nearly new, iron lawns, pneumatic tools, etc., etc., at a bargain. Call on L. M. Averill, from 4:15 to 5:30 P. M., over Eastern B. & N. Company.

CHILDREN'S CLOTHING MADE—During the months of November and December I will make children's clothes at the following prices: Girls' plain dresses, 25c up; girls', 25c; boys' knickerbockers and pants, 25c to 50c; blouses, 25c; overcoats, $1.00. Ladies' house dresses, $2.00; tailored shirt waists, $1.00. To go out by the day, $1.00 per day. Mrs. Dean S. Corlies, No. 4 Mount Vernon place. Telephone 191-3. 1911

Used to Excitement.

"Are you the man who was married in a cage of tigers?"

"I'm the man."

"Did it seem exciting?"

"It did then. It wouldn't now."

Kansas City Journal.

DREAMLAND THEATRE

ORIGINAL STORIES, FINE ACTING AND MATCHLESS PHOTOGRAPHY COMBINE TO MAKE OUR PHOTOPLAYS POPULAR

The Message of the Arrow
Fast riding—furious shooting—Thrilling episodes

The Winds of Fate
A charming little dramatic story

Intrepid Davy
Davy Jones is off again—The funniest ever produced

The Minute Man
The story of the battle of Lexington

BARRE OPERA HOUSE
FOX & BATON, Lessees.
JOHN & MORAN, Resident Mgr.

Tuesday, Nov. 7th
A Great Play from a Great Book

BAKER & CASTLE OFFER
A Stupendous Four Act Scenic Production of

THE GOOSE GIRL

George D. Baker's Dramatization of Harold MacGrath's Famous Novel

A Story of Mystery, Intrigue and Romance, with a touch of Pathos and Comedy

Prices: 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50
Seat sale at Kendrick's Drug Store Saturday morning at nine o'clock.

You Will Be Attracted

like a child is to sweets, if you will only take time sufficient to look over our

FALL CLOTHING

and see what variety we have to offer and how remarkable low our prices are.

You won't take long to decide when buying, as every suit we sell is in class A-1 and we guarantee what we sell.

Lamorey Clothing Co.,
Yours for Better Things to Wear

